Groove your fall ... with "Alone With You" !

Montreal, October 16, 2023 - She has more than 100 stages to her credit, including her very notable participation in Voix Junior Canada at the age of 10, this astonishing and talented songwriter and great performer, aged only 18, launched her professional solo career in April 2022. With already 4 singles in rotation on commercial radio and in the Mediabase top 100 as well as an EP album, all released in less than two years, June6xteen is making a sensational entrance onto the Canadian Pop, Soul R&B scene. Chosen as the future IHeart radio star of the month of May 2022 in Canada, the FR version of the song Ruined My life reached the top 20 of the BDS Top 100 Franco chart in Quebec and even the 43rd position of the AC Canadian Billboard for its English version .

Now a member of the Honey Jam family, allowing her to perform on the legendary Toronto stage, The El Mocambo, the little singer from the Laurentians thinks big and wants to conquer the world. She will make an appearance on the red carpet at the 2022 American Music Awards. Although her team is still based in Montreal, she is now continuing her musical journey by studying in Toronto where she collaborates with other artists and directors.

June6xteen , an impressive voice, a sound, a signature ...

4 months after the release of her 1st EP Album entitled Bitter And Sweet and just one month after releasing the French version of Run For Cover, June6xteen, very prolific songwriter offers her audience her brand new single entitled, Alone With You. True to her habits and her favorite number, this new single will be released on October 16. As with all of its previous titles, June6xteen gives us a new slice of life always in a Pop, Soul R&B style.

On this track, her melodious and powerful voice transports us into an new era and an atmosphere that is both sensual and sexy, which, coupled with very strong bass, allows her to express a stimulating and empowering message.

A song that evokes strength of character, determination and inspire people to stand up for themselves.

June 6xteen : " In my songs, I like to tell stories that people can make their own".

here again, it's an ode to hope against a backdrop of captivating melody and an American style anchored in a pop sound, main stream with which June6xteen definitely fits into the movement of rebellious pop singers full of attitude of the 2020s.
